Information note for the client:

BYKE prays the customer to carefully check the sketch and the correctness of the logos. If you like it, you must confirm it by e-mail.

In case of confirmation with incorrect logos, the company can not be held responsible for graphic errors and will not be required to reproduce the goods or to compensate the customer.

During the production phase the colors may undergo variations due to chemical processes during printing or from the types of fabrics used.

For technical reasons and to be able to adapt the graphics to the templates of the garments, the sketch chart may be subject to minor changes in production, even after approval.
